drugs. The defense argues the defense is innocent. However, there is evidence defendant and his co-defendant are both involved in the alleged offenses. Additionally, both were charged with similar offenses last November in the State of Oregon. The Court also finds defendant is a flight risk. Defendant has drug use problems, has violated conditions of release ordered by an Oregon Court, such as having contact with his co-defendant, possession of a firearm and leaving his residence without being supervised. It is therefore ORDERED: (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal; (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer. DATED this 11th day of January, 2011. BRIAN A. TSUCHIDA United States Magistrate Judge
